GENERAL INFORMATION PERTAINING TO WATER RIGHTS IN CALIFORNIA

There are two principal types of surface water rights in California. They are riparian and appropriative rights.

A riparian right enables an owner of land bordering a natural lake or stream to take and use water on his riparian land. Riparian land must be in the same watershed as the water source and must never have been severed from the sources of supply by an intervening parcel without reservation of the riparian right to the severed parcel. Generally, a riparian water user must share the water supply with other riparian users. Riparian rights may be used to divert the natural flow of a stream but may not be used to store water for later use or to divert water which originates in a different watershed, water previously stored by others, return flows from use of groundwater, or other "foreign" water to the natural stream system.

An appropriative right is required for use of water on non-riparian land and for storage of water. Generally, appropriative rights may be exercised only when there is a surplus not needed by riparian water users. Since 1914, new appropriators have been required to obtain a permit and license from the State. Appropriative rights can be granted to waters "foreign" to the natural stream system.

Statements of Water Diversion and Use must be filed by riparian and pre-1914 appropriative water users as set forth in Water Code section 5100 with specific exceptions. The filing of a statement (1) provides a record of water use, (2) enables the State to notify such users if someone proposes a new appropriation upstream from their diversions, and (3) assists the State to determine if additional water is available for future appropriators.

The above discussion is provided for general information. For more specific information concerning water rights, please contact an attorney or write to this office. We have several pamphlets available. They include: (1) Statements of Water Diversion and Use, (2) Information Pertaining to Water Rights in California, and (3) Appropriation of Water in California.

Thank you for completing and returning the Reports of Licensee for the subject licenses. Per your letter dated October 13, 2002, we will update our records to show the new ownership of the subject licenses as follows:

11860 (A026206)	Delete Merle Hamm Estate; add Masterson Properties

The mail contact (agent) for each of these water rights remains unchanged.

You also indicated that you did not receive the 1999-2001 Supplemental Statement of Water Diversion and Use for Statement No. S009676. This may have been due to a recent change in agent name. Supplemental Statements are sent out based on the last name of the mail-code designee. In 2000, it was S-Z. In 2001 it was A-I, and the Statements for 2002 (due out early next year) will be for last names beginning with J-R. Because of this, on occasion the Supplemental Statements are not mailed on the usual three-year cycle when there is a change in owner or agent name. Nevertheless, a Supplemental Statement of Water Diversion and Use for 1999-2001 is enclosed. We appreciate you completing and returning the form at your earliest convenience. As requested, we will update our records for S009676 to delete Merle Hamm Estate as the Owner-of-Record and add Masterson Properties, c/o Dennis Barkley, 952 Kenilworth Ct., Walnut Creek, 94596.

Finally, your letter claims that the westerly point of diversion (POD) for S009665, located in the NE¼ of the SE ¼ of Section 6, T22N, R5W, MDB&M, is incorrectly located on property owned by Mr. Joshua Soske, and inquired whether 1) we could re-locate the POD onto your family property located in the NE ¼ of NE ¼ of Section 12, R6W, T22N, approximately one mile upstream, in order to correct an alleged error made at the time the original Statement was filed; and 2) whether the Pre-1914 water right claimed by Statement No. S009665 could be divided between your family's property and that of Mr. Soske.

The short answer is "no". The SWRCB Division of Water Rights (Division) has no jurisdiction over Pre-1914 rights. The Division's responsibilities are limited to tracking the claims made by individuals claiming a Pre-1914 water right, updating ownership and addresses, and maintaining a record of continuing use under those claims. The Division does not have authority to affirm a Pre-1914 right, or to modify Pre-1914 rights either by relocating a POD or splitting a right among multiple owners. If, however, you still believe you have a valid claim of Pre-1914 right to divert water for use on your property, and have sufficient evidence to support the claim in a legal contest or adjudication, you should file a new Statement of Water Diversion and Use. A form is enclosed for your convenience.

If you would like to file either a Registration of Livestock Stockpond Appropriation or a standard water right application, please let us know so we can send you the necessary forms, or download them off our web site at www.waterrights.ca.gov/forms.

If you have any questions regarding this letter, or would like the aforementioned forms sent to you, please write or contact me at (916) 341-5346, or e-mail at klong@waterrights.swrcb.ca.gov.

GENERAL INFORMATION PERTAINING TO WATER RIGHTS IN CALIFORNIA

There are two principal types of surface water rights in California, riparian and appropriative rights.

A riparian right enables an owner of land bordering a natural lake or stream to take and use water on their riparian land. Riparian land must be in the same watershed as the water source and must never have been severed from the sources of supply by an intervening parcel without reservation of the riparian right to the severed parcel. Generally, a riparian water user must share the water supply with other riparian users. Riparian rights may be used to divert the natural flow of a stream but may not be used to store water for later use or to divert water which originates in a different watershed, or return flows from use of groundwater.

An appropriative right is required for use of water on nonriparian land and for storage of water. Generally, appropriative rights may be exercised only when there is a surplus not needed by riparian water users. Since 1914 new appropriators have been required to obtain a permit and license from the State.

Statements of Water Diversion and Use must be filed by riparian and pre-1914 appropriative water users. The filing of a statement (1) provides a record of water use, (2) enables the State to notify such users if someone proposes a new appropriation upstream from their diversion, and (3) assists the State to determine if additional water is available for future appropriators.
